

Press Release

March 2002

By Humphreys and Partners Architects, L.P.

Pillars of the Industry Award

Dallas, TX - Humphreys & Partners Architects is pleased to announce that they have won the prestigious Pillars of the Industry Award for "Best Garden Apartment Community - Secondary Market" for the Preserve at Indigo Run in Hilton Head, SC. Mark Humphreys, CEO, and Greg Faulkner, President, accepted the award on behalf of the firm at a gala ceremony at the Fontainebleau Hilton in Miami Beach.

The Pillars of the Industry awards are given by the National Association of Homebuilders in recognition of excellence in multifamily design, construction, finance, management and marketing. These awards are recognized as a showcase of innovation and future trends in the multifamily industry.

The Preserve at Indigo Run, developed by the Sterling Group of Alpharetta, GA is one of Humphreys' copyrighted "Big House"® multifamily designs. The six unit-buildings include direct-access garages that afford each unit individual ground floor entries and an elevation that reads like an upscale, single-family residence.

Humphreys & Partners Architects, L.P. is an award winning, nationally recognized, full service architectural firm with on-going projects in over 40 states. HPA is currently designing hi-rise, mid-rise, luxury, moderate, senior, tax credit, and low-income multifamily projects - both rental and for sale - in markets across the country. They also have considerable expertise in the design of hotels, single family and student housing. They have won numerous other local and national awards, including Pillars of the Industry, Best in American Living, Builder's Choice, Gold Nugget and Aurora.

Source: Humphreys and Partners Architects, L.P.

Date: March 2002