Humphreys is the founder and CEO of Humphreys & Partners Architects L.P., an architectural design and planning firm based in Dallas, with regional offices in Irvine, Las Vegas, Orlando, Charlotte and Norfolk. In 2004, he was the first architect named to Multi-Housing News' Hall of Fame. "2005 was the year of the high-rise condo. We came up with a design that allows elevators to open onto a private elevator lobby on each floor with just a few unit doors accessible from it. We have branded this concept as the 'Home-Rise.'"
